

Name: _____

Book Title: _____

Author: _____

Category:

- Fiction
- Nonfiction

Genre:

- Biography
- Memoir
- Romance
- Fantasy
- Historical Fiction
- Mystery
- Horror
- Other: _____

Point of View:

- First Person
- Third Person

Name of person/character
telling story:
_____

Author's Purpose

- Persuade
- Inform
- Entertain

Theme--message that a story reveals about life or the world.

Surprise!! Something that you weren't expecting.

Setting:

Characters--List 3 main characters and 2-3 character traits that best describes them.

1. _____
_____
2. _____
_____
3. _____
_____

Major conflict:

Solution:

MIRRORS Students can see an aspect(s) of themselves and their own experiences reflected in the book.	WINDOWS Students can learn through the book about people, places, and experiences that differ from their own.	SLIDING GLASS DOORS Students learn about something different than their own life experiences which changes them or their thinking.

After you have finished reading, think about your novel. Overall, which category from above does your book fit into?

---

---

---

---

---