

UDL in Action

From Framework Overload to Focused Impact

A FREE FOUR-PART VIRTUAL WEBINAR SERIES FOR CALIFORNIA'S EARLY CHILDHOOD PROFESSIONALS
TUESDAYS | SEPTEMBER 22 – OCTOBER 13, 2026
3:30–5:30 P.M. (PACIFIC)

DESIGN JOYFUL, INCLUSIVE EARLY LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS WHERE EVERY CHILD BELONGS

Explore how Universal Design for Learning (UDL) can transform Universal Preschool by reducing barriers, honoring learner variability, and creating equitable opportunities for every child to learn, play, and thrive.

SERIES OVERVIEW

SESSION 1 | TUESDAY, SEPT. 22ND BUILDING THE FOUNDATION

FACILITATED BY CPIN REGION 1

Explore the PTKLF Approaches to Learning domain and discover how it supports engagement, curiosity, and lifelong learning.

SESSION 2 | TUESDAY, SEPT. 29TH BELONGING BY DESIGN

Learn how variability, identity, and rightful presence create the foundation for belonging and meaningful participation.

SESSION 3 | TUESDAY, OCT. 6TH UDL AS A PLANNING LENS

Apply UDL strategies to design flexible learning experiences that support engagement, representation, and action & expression.

SESSION 4 | TUESDAY, OCT. 13TH UDL IN PRACTICE

Bring UDL to life through intentional classroom design, play-based learning, collaborative planning, and strategies that reduce barriers before they occur.

REGISTER NOW!

Scan the QR code or use the bit.ly link below:

bit.ly/INKUDLWebinar

Questions? Please contact:
Shannon Rich
srich@scoe.net

